

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

SB 2001 - HB 2102

March 13, 2022

SUMMARY OF BILL AS AMENDED (014285): Removes the provisions that a person convicted of a felony or misdemeanor prior to November 1, 1989 must have: (1) been sentenced to a determinate sentence of three years or less; (2) sentenced to an indeterminate sentence for which the person served three years or less; and (3) did not involve the sale or distribution of a Schedule III or IV controlled substance, to be eligible for expunction. Increases the maximum amount the offense for which the person was convicted that did not result in causing the victim or victims to sustain a loss of, from $50,000 or more to $60,000 or more, to be eligible for expunction.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL AS AMENDED:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- The proposed legislation will not result in a significant increase in the number of people eligible for expunction to substantially increase local revenue from expungement fees.
- Based on information provided by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, any increase in workload resulting from petitions for expunction can be accommodated within existing resources.
